

1. Controller (All functions are written)
  - To get all products
  - To get add product page
  - To post product to database
2. Requests
  - Products & quantities validations are done
3. Models
  - querying data to and from the table in the database
4. Routes
  - creating a request URL of the application